Do you love pianos?*

Do you enjoy reading stories about pianos?*

Do you have a tale or two to tell?*

Well you can help us! We are looking for great anecdotes, yarns, special memories, and whatever else strikes one's fancy to include in our upcoming book, a selection of Piano Stories from near and far.

Are you a:

Chances are you have a great story to share, even if you don't find yourself in the above list. Whether it's a humorous, human interest or horror story, we'd love to hear it. (A few of you might have trouble stopping once you start — you know who you are — but that's okay).
